

CHILD CUSTODY HOLIDAY CONSIDERATIONS

By Erinakes Law, PLLC

When setting possession schedules, it is important to take holidays into consideration.

For example, some parents alternate holidays in even and odd years.

Here is a list of holidays you might wish to consider when setting your possessions schedules:

Halloween
Thanksgiving
Christmas
New Year's Day / Eve
MLK Day
Spring Break
Labor & Memorial Day
4th of July
Children & Parent Birthdays
Mother's & Father's Day
Religious Holidays
Extended Summer Possession
